Professional 5-star matches Dave Meltzer Professional Wrestling journalist and sport Historian Dave Meltzer has assigned evaluation to professional wrestling matches from the creation of his publication, the Wrestling observer's newsletter in 1982 and appointed his first 5-star game in 1983. Receiving a 5 or higher evaluation is considered many to be a great result. [1] The highest score ever given to a Meltzer game was 7-star, that he assigned to Kenny Omega against Kazuchika Okada in Dominion 6.9 in Osaka-Jo Hall in June 2018. There were 188 matches assigned to Kenny Omega against Kazuchika Okada in Dominion 6.9 in Osaka-Jo Hall in June 2018. Currently you are unable to change Wikipedia pages. Most people who see this message did nothing wrong. Some types of blocks limit the change from specific service providers or telecommunications companies in response to recent abuse or vandalism and influence other users who are not correlated to that abuse. See below if you don't think I did something wrong. The modification of the 95.216.0.0/16 has been blocked (disabled) for âast47 - for the following reason: the IP address you are using has been blocked because it is believed to be a supplier of Web or colocation supplier. To avoid abuse, web hosts and placement providers can be locked by the modification of Wikipedia. You will not be able to change Wikipedia using a web host or a colocation supplier because it hides your IP address, very similar to a proxy or VPN. It is advisable to try to use another connection to change Edit A mobile connection, try using a Wi-Fi connection and vice versa. If you have a Wikipedia account, log in.
